WHY HOTEL MANYANA

Located on the oceanfront in Silver Sands on Barbados' beautiful South Coast, Hotel Manyana is a newly reimagined boutique hotel where barefoot island living meets relaxed coastal style. Just 15 minutes from Grantley Adams International Airport, the hotel offers a refreshing alternative to Barbados' more traditional resort destinations, with sweeping ocean views, cooling trade winds and an unmistakably laid-back atmosphere.

With just 15 thoughtfully renovated rooms, including Studios, One Bedroom and Two Bedroom Suites, Hotel Manyana offers an intimate and easygoing escape. Every room enjoys ocean views and a balcony, with contemporary coastal interiors and the comforts of home. Whether seeking a quiet retreat, an active watersports holiday or an authentic island escape, guests can settle into the rhythm of South Coast living.

At the heart of the property is Surfers Bay Beach Bar & Restaurant, a much-loved local destination bringing together relaxed beachfront dining, tropical cocktails and regular live music. Guests can spend their days beside the oceanfront pool, explore the island's renowned surf and watersports scene, or simply embrace the slower pace of life.
Hotel Manyana. Tomorrow Can Wait.

ABOUT BARBADOS

Barbados' long, white sandy beaches some seventy miles of pristine palm fringed are among the best in the world and the island is a true taste of the ultimate tropical Caribbean paradise. It is the place to be seen, draws in the celebrity crowd and attracts those who have known the island for years and return time and time again. Influenced by a blend of West African and British heritage, beyond the beaches the island's history is well documented with the historic and well-preserved international commerce, culture and built heritage area of Bridgetown the island's capital and its Garrison designated by UNESCO as a heritage site.

Barbados measures just 21 miles by 14 miles at its widest point but the island offers visitors a wealth of options and experiences. The choices are endless, whether it's taking time to relax and enjoy the beach or exploring more of Barbados and delving deeper into the heart of this special island paradise.

There is always something happening with a calendar of festivals, sporting events and celebrations throughout the year. Crop Over Summer festival and the finale Grand Kadooment Day see the streets of St Michael come alive with Masquerade Bands and colourfully revellers dancing and enjoying the finale day.

Barbados is known for its fabulous dining scene and the annual Food and Rum Fest bringing the island's finest culinary talent together with renowned Rum producers with October becoming a culinary escapade. Mixed with International cricket tournaments, horse racing, polo and car rallying to name a few there is a vibrant choice on offer to visitors throughout the year.

Combine a stay with a choice of land and sea based activities such as with sailing, surfing, scuba diving, nature-based tours, hiking, or a round of golf with friends, Barbados offers something for all visitors to the island.Barbados has a big reputation and is a popular choice for travellers, it may be small but there is so much to do, see and experience the possibilities are endless.

Barbados has the world's third oldest Parliament.
