WHY SOUTH POINT HOTEL

Located on Barbados's tranquil South Coast, South Point Hotel is nestled in the charming district of Ocean Way in Landsdown, Christ Church. The hotel boasts sweeping views of the sparkling Caribbean Sea and a sense of effortless coastal elegance.

This stylish boutique property spans six modern buildings and features 47 thoughtfully designed suites, with views of lush tropical gardens, the saltwater pool, or the shimmering Caribbean Sea. Blending laid-back sophistication with authentic island charm, South Point Hotel provides a serene yet well-connected retreat for travellers seeking both relaxation and the vibrant spirit of Barbados.

Guests can unwind poolside, take a leisurely stroll to the nearby beach, or indulge in Caribbean and international cuisine at Driftwood Restaurant & Bar, where rich local flavours and global culinary influences come together beautifully.

ABOUT BARBADOS

Barbados' long, white sandy beaches some seventy miles of pristine palm fringed are among the best in the world and the island is a true taste of the ultimate tropical Caribbean paradise. It is the place to be seen, draws in the celebrity crowd and attracts those who have known the island for years and return time and time again. Influenced by a blend of West African and British heritage, beyond the beaches the island's history is well documented with the historic and well-preserved international commerce, culture and built heritage area of Bridgetown the island's capital and its Garrison designated by UNESCO as a heritage site.

Barbados measures just 21 miles by 14 miles at its widest point but the island offers visitors a wealth of options and experiences. The choices are endless, whether it's taking time to relax and enjoy the beach or exploring more of Barbados and delving deeper into the heart of this special island paradise.

There is always something happening with a calendar of festivals, sporting events and celebrations throughout the year. Crop Over Summer festival and the finale Grand Kadooment Day see the streets of St Michael come alive with Masquerade Bands and colourfully revellers dancing and enjoying the finale day.

Barbados is known for its fabulous dining scene and the annual Food and Rum Fest bringing the island's finest culinary talent together with renowned Rum producers with October becoming a culinary escapade. Mixed with International cricket tournaments, horse racing, polo and car rallying to name a few there is a vibrant choice on offer to visitors throughout the year.

Combine a stay with a choice of land and sea based activities such as with sailing, surfing, scuba diving, nature-based tours, hiking, or a round of golf with friends, Barbados offers something for all visitors to the island.Barbados has a big reputation and is a popular choice for travellers, it may be small but there is so much to do, see and experience the possibilities are endless.
